Vanessa Lim
College of Health and Human Development | STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

What are some challenges you have faced? How did you overcome them?

My classes have been a rude awakening of the high demand of nursing school. This required me to find a routine that balances my motivation, academic habits and support system. Spending time with friends and having “me” time has helped me distress.

How has HHD prepared you for your future?

I have met so many great people that I can call lifelong friends. It’s helped me realize my goals and what I want in life; like my future career and supportive relationships.

What are some benefits you have had through being involved?

I gained access to so many useful resources, like the HHD Student Success Centers. I work in the Student Recreation Center and my coworkers are some of the funniest and most supportive people I’ve ever met. It’s just what I need. They bring me up if I have a bad day at school.

How has CSUF prepared you for your future?

Going to CSUF and moving away from home has helped me learn how to juggle responsibilities and make mistakes that teach me how to improve next time.

“Success is not final, Failure is not fatal, it is the courage to continue that counts”
~Winston Churchill

Vanessa Lim is a Sophomore Nursing Major. She is expecting to graduate in spring 2020. She would ideally like to return to her to practice nursing while continuing on to graduate school to reach higher and become a family nurse practitioner. She is also open to attending medical school for family practice or pediatrics because Fresno is beginning a new program in 2019. Vanessa works on campus for intramurals at the Student Recreation Center and is also a part of HHD-ICC, as well as the...
