What are some tips for students at CSUF?

Don’t be afraid to adapt and meet new people. Your time at CSUF will be much more enjoyable and positive if you are able to open up to new ideas and people. You don’t know what you are capable of until you try.

What are some challenges you faced? How did you overcome them?

Some challenges I have faced has had a to do with time management and making sure I have time to do all that needs to get done. I overcame this by writing everything in a planner.

What steps are you taking to graduate on time?

Some steps I am taking are staying on top of my school work, finishing my internships and meeting with my advisor. Just to keep on top of everything that needs to be done and focus on deadlines.

TITAN PRIDE

Rebecca is a senior graduating in Spring 2017. She is a Human Services Major. Her long term goal is to work for a non-profit organization as well as being an advocate for teen girls. She is involved in the Peer Mentor Program as well as the Human Services Student Association. She is also apart of an off campus organization called Big Brother Big Sister. Rebecca’s involvement in these organizations has helped her become more motivated to succeed in her academics so she can make a difference in society and people’s lives.

What are some benefits of being involved?

Meeting new people as well as really working on my networking skills. Also having the benefit of being apart of the community and making a difference.

“It’s okay to be a glow stick. Sometimes we have to break before we shine.”

~Unknown