

CAS Concentrations: Are you in the right concentration?

Early Childhood Development

CHAE

Stop here if you want to be an Infant/Toddler or Preschool Teacher or an Early Childhood Special Education Teacher

Pause here if you want to be a TK, Kinder or 1st-grade teacher; see an advisor about the difference between CHAE & CHAS.

Early Childhood ITEP students should be here!

Elementary School Settings

CHAS

Stop here if you want to be a K-6th grade Teacher and plan to pursue a Multiple-Subject Credential or you want to be a TK-12th Special Education (SPED) Teacher and plan to pursue a Mild/Mod or Extensive Support Credential

Mild/Mod or Extensive Support students should be here!

Adolescent & Youth Development

CHAY

Stop here if you plan to work with youth in a community or school setting or plan to be Middle/High School Teacher and plan to pursue a Single Subject Credential or plan to attend a graduate studies program with a focus on adolescents.

Pause here if you plan to do counseling or social work, see an advisor about the difference between CHAY & CHAF.

Family & Community Context

CHAF

Stop here if you plan to work in a community setting (ABA, Child Life Specialist, nonprofit organization), or preparing for graduate work in child development, counseling, social work or related fields.
