

CHILD AND ADOLESCENT STUDIES DEPARTMENT ANNUAL STUDENT AWARD

THE GUILLIAN DAGUPLO SERVICE TO DEPARTMENT AND/OR UNIVERSITY AWARD

Award Description

Guillian Daguplo was a beloved member of the Child and Adolescent Studies Student Association (CASSA) and served on the Executive Board for two years. He was dedicated to serving the children and families in our local community, went above and beyond to help his fellow board members, brought innovation to his roles, and was always a positive light. During his time on the CASSA Executive Board, “Guil” dedicated hundreds of hours to volunteering in the community, serving on the CASSA board, serving the CAS department, and supporting his fellow Executive Board members. In honor of Guil, this award recognizes volunteer efforts toward the Child and Adolescent Studies Department and/or the University. It is open to current Child and Adolescent Studies majors in any class standing, and only unpaid work will be considered. This award includes a framed certificate and a $300 award.

The award recipient will be recognized at the CAS Celebration of Achievement.
