

Stephen M. Hall, MA

15 Northgrove
Irvine, CA 92604
714-330-0386

Professional Substance Abuse Counselor and Educator with thirty-five years of experience in mental health care delivery. Powerful facilitator of education and training for students, professionals and clients.

Areas of Expertise

- Behavioral training
 - Trauma informed care
 - Interactive/experiential teaching
 - Public speaking
 - Substance abuse counseling and education
 - Group, Individual and family counseling
 - Treatment planning
 - Public health education
 - Crisis intervention/management
 - Collaborative team member
 - Treatment delivery in the criminal justice system
-

EDUCATION

Chapman University, Orange, CA
Master of Health Administration
Achieved Graduate Status 1996

California State University, Fullerton, CA
Bachelor of Science in Human Services
Concentration in Counseling and Community Social Work
Achieved Graduate Status 1992

University of California, Irvine, CA
Certificate in Addictions Counseling
CAADAC/CAADE Certified in 1987/2019

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE:

Thirty-five years of clinical experience in the field of addictions counseling and community education.

- Adult and adolescent treatment in several of Orange County's premiere hospitals including: Saint Josephs, Saint Jude Fullerton, Hoag Memorial and New Beginnings Inc.
- Facilitation of family systems-oriented treatment
- Development and presentation of educational lectures, process groups and seminars on the subject of addictive/codependent behavioral disorders
- Facilitation of individual, group and family counseling services
- Behavioral training and counseling of at risk youth and families within the Juvenile Justice Division of the County of Orange

Instruction/ Presentation Experience:

Lecturer: California State University Human Services Program: Present experiential based courses exploring addiction treatment and theories of counseling. Presented at SAAPSA conference and club meetings.

Instructor: Rosemead School of Psychology: Facilitate training seminars on the subject of addictive behavioral disorders and treatment with doctoral level psychology students.

Instructor: Argosy University School of Psychology: Facilitated courses in addictive behavior crisis intervention techniques for doctoral level psychology students.

Instructor: Orange Coast College: Community Education: Facilitate a day long course focusing on substance abuse awareness for court ordered at risk youth.

Professional Employment History:

2014-Present: California State University Fullerton

Full Time Lecturer

- Facilitate a variety of courses in the Human Services Department
- Provide field experiences for students in the criminal justice system.

2015-Present: Hoag Memorial Hospital: Newport Beach

Counselor

- Family Counselor: SolMar Recovery

2000 – 2014: County of Orange, Juvenile Drug Court

Mental Health Specialist: Treatment Program Coordinator

- Development, implementation and oversight of the juvenile drug court program. Supervision and counseling of at risk youth. Provider of family counseling, crisis intervention and mental health assessment services.
- Responsible for training and development of program interns.
- Development and administration of recreational program.
- Represented the Health Care Agency interests in a multi-disciplinary setting including: The Presiding Juvenile Court Judge, District Attorneys Office, Public Defenders Office and the Juvenile Probation Department.

2005-Present: Behavioral Options

Educator/Behavioral Interventionist

- Provide education, training and behavioral interventions on addictive behavioral disorders.
- Facilitate the drug and alcohol awareness course at Orange Coast College.

1985-1998: New Beginnings, St. Joseph, St. Jude, Hoag Chemical Dependency Units

Case Manager/Counselor

- Provided case management and counseling services to adult chemically dependent clients and families.

