ASSOCIATION for APPLIED SPORT PSYCHOLOGY

July 31, 2015

Dear Chelsea,

The Association for Applied Sport Psychology's (AASP) Student Diversity Conference Travel Grant Committee comprised of two members of the AASP Diversity Committee and myself recently reviewed 9 grant applications. The grants are intended to support racially and ethnically diverse students with a developing interest in sport and exercise psychology (SEP) who have not previously attended an annual AASP conference, the opportunity to attend the annual conference, learn more about the field of SEP, and develop professional connections within AASP as well as the field.

Preference is given to applicants who display a clear interest in diversity issues in SEP through conveying via their application materials their: 1) conference goals, 2) career and educational goals in cultural sport and/or exercise psychology, and 3) understanding and commitment to cultural diversity in SEP.

After a thorough review of your application, we are pleased to inform you that you are a 2015 recipient of the AASP Student Diversity Conference Travel Grant. Please find the grant committee's evaluation of your application and guidelines for the award.

Please remember that there are requirements that must be fulfilled as a result of this grant:

- In order to register for the conference and obtain your AASP Student Membership, a representative from the AASP's management firm, Holland-Parlette Associates (HPA) will be in contact with you concerning the process of confirming your AASP membership and conference registration.
- A summary of your experiences at the 2015 AASP conference (500 words or less) must be submitted to me within two months after the conference (by December 15, 2015). Your summary will be posted on the AASP Diversity webpage (<http://www.appliedsportpsych.org/about/diversity/>) to highlight your award and experience.

Congratulations and we look forward to seeing you at the AASP conference!

Regards,

Leeja Carter
